TECHNICAL PROJECTS

Cat Couture - Github | Site Demo
Comprehensive full-stack React web application for a cat product website
- Uses a PostgreSQL database to store product, discount, and reports information
- Express API server retrieves data from the database and is processed by a fetch request
- Product data is then displayed on a React single page application using best practices
- Utilises JSON Web Tokens and Auth0 for authentication to display product dashboard information

Nested Comments System - Github
Complex fully functional full-stack comments system with likes, comments, editing and deleting
- Uses a local PostgreSQL database populated with Prisma
- Back-end retrieves data from the database and connects this with the front-end React application
- Exhaustive React + Javascript logic using state and hooks to facilitate comments system

Personal ePortfolio - Github | Site Demo
Showcasing UX/UI design and ability with CSS as well as personal projects
- Uses HTML and CSS best practices with website structure and code quality
- Showcases extensive CSS knowledge including animations and scroll behaviour
- Uses JavaScript to facilitate state changes including a contact form and light/dark modes
